

Melodic Death Metal from Franconia!

With their first demo songs Dieiversity, founded in 2010, could arrange a record deal with 7hard – 7us media group. Their debut album named "Last Day: Tomorrow" has been released in the end of 2012 and had much positive reactions.

No. 2 in amazon.de chartlist of new releases and no. 18 in general Rock and metal charts was the successful result of this release. In the reviews also everyone agreed: Rock Hard: 7.5/10, Powermetal.de: 8.5/10, Metalunderground.at: 5/5, metal.de: 7/10...

Dieiversity gained also further popularity at live gigs in clubs and at festivals. They showed up on "Metal Franconia Festival", "Bonebreaker Festival", "Hell'n'Hang Festival", "Rumpsteak Festival", „Autumn Assault Festival“ and in the year 2015 at the „Christmas Bash“ in Geiselwind. They also did the very successful "Franconian Bastards Tour", which brought them to the „Rockfabrik Nuremberg“. Some shows in cult clubs like „Gunzendorf live“, the „Sound'n'Arts“ or „Disco Y“ and a show in Poland in 2016 are also in their references.

With the album "Re/Awekening" which was published in autumn 2015 the band improved in sound and songwriting once more. The recent feedbacks can Dieiversity look to the future joyfully and expectant.

Horns Up!
